

King James Onlyism: A New Sect

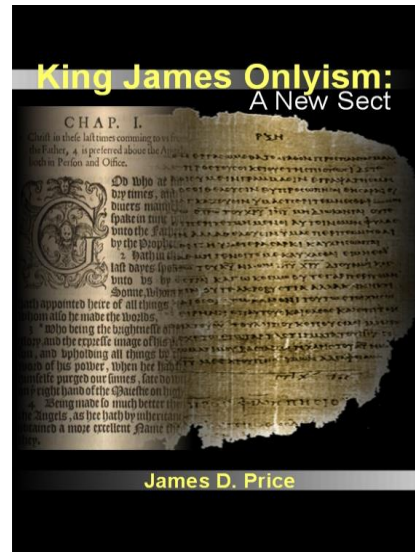

By James D. Price, Ph.D.

Biblical, historical, theological, and textual critical research reveals the recent origin of a new doctrine of Scripture. Modern versions are defended as theologically reliable. Various theories of textual preservation are evaluated.

Chapter	Page
INTRODUCTION: The King James Only Doctrine Is a New Idea	1
1. Early English Versions Were Incomplete until Wycliffe	21
2. Tyndale Was the First to Translate from Hebrew and Greek	31
3. Tyndale's Translation Was Revised Seven Times	43
4. The King James Version Was a Revision	61
5. The King James Version Was Revised Seven Times	91
6. Current Editions of the King James Version Differ	105
7. The Byzantine Text Was Preserved through Different Bibles	125
8. The Bible's Content Was Preserved in Authorized Translations	153
9. The Bible's Content Was Preserved in Authorized Translations	175
10. Some Recognized Textual Variants	181
11. Some Recognized Textual Variants	219
12. Some Recognized Textual Variants	251
13. Some Recognized Textual Variants	277
14. Modern Textual Criticism	295
15. Modern Textual Criticism	315
16. Textual Criticism	397
17. Conclusion	419
Appendix A: The King James Version and the AV	425
Appendix B: Example of Textual Variants	449
Appendix C: Example of Textual Variants	457
Appendix D: An Evaluation of the King James Version	481
Appendix E: An Evaluation of the King James Version	501
Appendix F: A Mathematical Analysis of the King James Version	527
Appendix G: The Greek Text of the King James Version	539
Appendix H: Partial List of Differences Between the TR and the Byz Text	549
Appendix I: Textual Emendations in the Authorized Version	561
Appendix J: Differences Between the NA-27 Text and the R-P Byzantine Text	593
Glossary of Terms	625
Bibliography	633
Index of Persons and Topics	645

FREE
+ $5.00 shipping & handling
while supply lasts
USA only

658 pages. Free plus $5.00 shipping and handling. Bulk rates available. Offer good in the U.S. only while supply lasts. Book(s) shipped upon payment. Tennessee residents add 9.25% sales tax.

Order from author at:
2102 Colonial Pkwy. Dr.
Chattanooga, TN 37421-3309

e-mail DrJDPrice@aol.com website www.JamesDPrice.com